

THE WORD THIS WEEK

THIRTIETH SUNDAY IN ORDINARY TIME YEAR C

23 October 2022

A few weeks ago (22nd Sunday in Ordinary Time) we had a Gospel about humility in social life. Today we hear the Lord reiterating the message, but this time in reference to our prayer lives. The two Gospels are linked by the last words today, which also appear in the other story: 'Everyone who exalts himself will be humbled, but the one who humbles himself will be exalted.' This phrase is obviously a key part of our Lord's teaching! The sin of 'self-exaltation' consists in putting others in a lower place - as the Pharisee does to the tax collector. Perhaps the most telling phrase in today's Gospel is where Jesus refers to the Pharisee saying 'this prayer to himself,' rather than offering it to God! And since the Pharisee wasn't talking to God, how could he expect to be heard?

PARISH NOTICES & EVENTS

PARISH OF DIVINE MERCY PRAYER

Lord Jesus Christ, help us never to abandon your ways. As you have loved and shown us your mercy, may we sincerely express our love for God by loving our neighbour and being merciful to them. Jesus, King of Divine Mercy, we trust in you.

2. READINGS

First: Sirach / Ecclesiastus 35 12-14, 16-19 - The Lord is a God of justice, who knows no favourites. ... he hears the cry of the oppressed. The one who serves God willingly is heard; ... The prayer of the lowly pierces the clouds.

Psalm 34: The Lord hears the cry of the poor / I will bless the Lord at all times; / The Lord confronts the evildoers, / The Lord is close to the broken hearted.

Second: II Timothy 4: 6-8, 16-18 - I have finished the race; I have kept the faith. ... the Lord stood by me and gave me strength, so that through me the proclamation might be completed, and all the Gentiles might hear it. ... The Lord will rescue me from every evil threat and will bring me safe to his heavenly kingdom.

Gospel: Luke 18:9-14 - Parable of the Pharisee and the Tax Collector / Publican

3. HOPE IN THE FUTURE PRAYER CYCLE: Let us pray for the people of the parish of St. Joseph, Mossley, and its primary school together with the parish of the Sacred Heart Uppermill (in the Diocese of Leeds), with Fr. James Clarke. May they ever hear the cry of the poor.

4. BAPTISM: We welcome into the Divine Mercy Parish community Nevaeh Richardson and Angel Chibueze Udeh Iwurie, who were baptised in the Parish last weekend.

5. ST VINCENT DE PAUL SOCIETY (SVP): Thank you to all those who responded so positively to the appeal to set up a new group of the SVP in our parish. There will be a first informal meeting of the group in St Herbert's Parish Centre after the 11.00 am Mass this Sunday, 23rd October. All interested parishioners are invited to attend.

13. SCHOOL NEWS

Corpus Christi: After a busy half term and a wonderful start to the half-term, the staff and children are looking forward to a well-deserved half term break next week.

This week we held our first well-being Wednesday and thoughtful Thursday of the academic year and we welcomed back DRUHM official. They are specialist in helping people find their own BEAT and rhythm in everyday life, using the power of the DRUHM to connect people, break down barriers and give people confidence. Check out our school social media to see what we got up to.

This week our new PTFA held their first event of the academic year - our 'Ugly Bug Ball'. It was a great success and the children had a wonderful time. Thank you to our all our families for supporting the event.

St Herbert's: We have been busy at school this week.

On Tuesday we held our Harvest festival, and it was wonderful to be able to invite grandparents to help us celebrate. The children read and sang beautifully. All the donations we received will go to families and local foodbanks in the area.

On Wednesday Upper Key stage 2 held a topic day based on Space -The children made star constellations and space mobile hats. They left school with planets orbiting around their heads. Next week we are on half-term holiday. Let's hope the sun shines!

14. SUNDAY SMILE

An attendant was working in the souvenir shop at Canterbury Cathedral one afternoon when he was approached by two American tourists. "Are you a monk?", one of the tourists asked. "No," the attendant explained, "I wear this robe as part of my job, but I'm not a member of any religious order."

"Then where are the monks?" the tourist queried.

The attendant replied. "Oh, there haven't been any monks here since about 1540."

Hearing this, the tourist looked at her watch and then announced to her friend, "Did you hear that, Dexter, we've missed the monks!"
