

THE WORD THIS WEEK

THIRD SUNDAY IN ORDINARY TIME YEAR A

22 January 2023

We will spend most of the Sundays of the coming year in the company of Saint Matthew. His Gospel (like the others) has its own characteristics. He is writing for a Jewish audience, and so is always at pains to stress one thing: that Jesus of Nazareth was the promised Messiah. He does this by reference to Jesus' teaching and miracles, and very often by quoting the prophecies of the Old Testament to show that Jesus was their fulfilment. Today is a perfect example. 'Zebulun and Naphthali' was an old name for the area round Capernaum by the side of the Lake of Galilee, a busy fishing and trading area, with many Gentile towns and settlements: it is here, rather than in the dangerous town of Nazareth, that Jesus 'settles' and begins his ministry. This is where the proclamation of the Kingdom of God begins, as was foretold, and the first followers are invited to join Jesus.

PARISH NOTICES & EVENTS

PARISH OF DIVINE MERCY PRAYER

Lord Jesus Christ, help us never to abandon your ways. As you have loved and shown us your mercy, may we sincerely express our love for God by loving our neighbour and being merciful to them. Jesus, King of Divine Mercy, we trust in you.

2. READINGS

First: Isaiah 8:23 - 9:3 - The people that walked in darkness have seen a great light ... you have made their gladness greater.

Psalm 26: The Lord is my light and my help / There is one thing I ask of the Lord / I am sure I shall see the Lord's goodness.

Second: I Corinthians 1:10-13, 17: Paul urges the believers to make up the differences between themselves and to be united in Christ ... rather than having slogans like "I am for Paul" or "I am for Cephas".

Gospel: Matthew 4:12-23 - Jesus settled in Capernaum, fulfilling the prophesy of Isaiah "The people that lived in darkness have seen a great light". He calls the fishermen Simon Peter and Andrew to "follow me and I will make you fishers of men". Then he goes all around Galilee, preaching.

3. HOPE IN THE FUTURE PRAYER CYCLE

Let us pray for the parish of St. Gabriel and the Angels and St. John the Baptist, Castleton and Rochdale, with Father Michael Johonnett, their parish priest, their parish primary schools and the Franciscan Missionaries of St. Joseph. 12. SCHOOL NEWS

Corpus Christi

This week our new cohort of Sacramental children began their journey. They gathered together with their families for their first meeting. It was lovely to see everyone in attendance and we ask the parish to remember them in their prayers during their special journey.

Our Laudato Si group continue to go from strength to strength. They meet weekly with their leaders and work collaboratively to look after our common home. They are currently collecting and recycling bottle lids of all colours and are looking for the support of our parish family. At the back of Church from Sunday there will be a box for the parish to donate bottle lids. We will be continuing this for weeks ahead.

The Laudato Si' team have also joined a scheme to recycle old, used batteries. From this Sunday, at the back of Church, there will be a box for parishioners to recycle batteries safely and a leaflet about the importance of doing so.

13. SUNDAY SMILE

At the end of his weekly Bible Study Class, the Vicar asked the group if there were any prayer intentions. There were the usual requests: to pray for the sick of the parish, for those in hospital, for those who had recent bereavements in the family. This sombre mood finally ended when one lady stood up and said, "My seventeen-year-old granddaughter passed her driving test this week. Let us pray for us all."
