

THE BAPTISM OF THE LORD

YEAR A

It may seem strange, but this is a Christmas Feast. Not if we think of Christmas only in terms of the Baby in Bethlehem, but if we have followed the ideas of the Feasts of Holy Family and especially Epiphany, and have seen the Season in terms of the growing manifestation or appearing of the Son of God: first to the shepherds and then to the wise men from the East. Now in the River Jordan, Jesus, Son of Mary, is revealed to all as the fullness of all God's promises: "This is my Son, the Beloved". On this day we stand before the revelation of God's love for us, such that he would send his only Son into the world. Christmas without the Baptism of the Lord, and the words that are spoken from heaven, would be incomplete, since it is only in them that we fully see the wonder of what happened in Bethlehem, that we fully understand the reason for the joy with which we celebrated Christmas Day. As we come to the end of Christmas today, and look forward to hearing the Gospel in Ordinary Time, we do so having been shown who it is we listen to: the only Son of God, the Beloved.

2. READINGS

First: Isaiah 43: 1-4, 6-7 - The Lord says "Here is my servant ... that he may bring true justice to the nations ... he does not cry aloud ... Faithfully he brings true justice .. I the Lord have called you to serve the cause of right ..."

Psalm 29 : The Lord will bless his people with peace
/ O give the Lord you sons of God / The Lord's voice resounding on the water / The God of glory thunders.

Second: Acts 10:34-48 : God does not have favourites: his word was sent to the people of Israel - but Jesus Christ is the Lord of all ... because God was with him, Jesus went about doing good and curing all who had fallen to the power of the devil.

10. SCHOOL NEWS

St Herbert's: We returned to school this week to the great excitement of snow ! not sure the staff were excited !

It was lovely to see the children all eager to share news about their Christmas holidays.

On Wednesday the whole school came together with the parish family to celebrate Mass for the new year and new beginnings. As usual the children were wonderful. On Thursday we held an open evening for prospective Reception parents. There was a good turn out and they enjoyed looking around the school. We hope you all had a Happy and Holy Christmas with your families.

As we face the new year we ask Our Lord to stay with us on our journey.
